SUMMARY

I am a freelance videographer and editor based in Co. Monaghan, Ireland with qualifications in Creative Media and Video & Film from Dundalk Institute of Technology.

I have over 10 years experience working in live events, leading video teams in multi-camera shoots, most of which I have edited. I have experience working on live broadcasts on multiple occasions.

As well as this, I have shot, produced and edited short films, promotional videos and many other projects. I am proficient in Premiere Pro with experience in Final Cut Pro. I have experience using a variety of cameras, gimbals and drones, coming well prepared for the different scenarios that are encountered while producing video content.
